Alpora Innovation Europa Fonds - CHF hedged

ISIN: CH0302271066

Fund management company: LLB Swiss Investment Ltd., Claridenstrasse 20, 8002 Zurich

Aim and investment policy

The investment objective of Alpora Innovation Europa Fonds consists primarily of generating added value tied to reasonable earnings through investments in equities of innovative European companies (incl. Switzerland) resp. whose major economic activities are in Europe. Companies with a proven innovative capacity qualify for the security selection.

The investment fund primarily invests in equity securities and rights (stocks, profit certificates, co-operative shares, participation certificates and the like) of European companies (incl. Switzerland) resp. whose major economic activities are in Europe. The fund takes ESG aspects into account in its investments (ESG: Environmental / Social / Governance). The portfolio manager (AMG Fondsverwaltung AG, Zug) will make the selection and weightings at its own decision. Transaction costs are charged to the fund assets and thus reduce the earnings of the fund.

The share class is denominated in Swiss Francs CHF. At least 90% of the reference currency of this class (CHF) will be hedged against the reference currency of the fund (EUR).

The fund may use derivatives to hedge investment positions and to manage the funds' assets efficiently. Even under extraordinary market circumstances, these instruments must not be used to change the fund's investment objectives. Securities lending transactions and repurchase transactions are prohibited. The fund may take out loans. These are restricted to a maximum of 10% of the fund assets.

The fund is suitable for investors with a long-term investment horizon, who are primarily looking for growth in their invested capital. Investors can accept considerable fluctuations and a long-lasting decline in the inventory value of the fund shares. In principle, investors can redeem shares on any day the banks are open for business in Zurich. No issues or redemptions will take place on days when the stock exchanges and markets in the fund's main investment countries are closed. However, the funds management may suspend redemptions.

The net earnings of the fund will be retained. Possible taxes and fees on the reinvestment are reserved.

This risk indicator is based on historic information over the last five years. Predicting future developments is not possible. The grading of the fund can change in the future and does not present a guarantee. Even a fund rated as category 1 does not present a completely risk-free investment.

The fund has been classified in the aforementioned category on the basis of its historic value fluctuations.

Further risks, which are material to the fund and have not been taken into account by the risk indicator, are:

- Liquidity risks: Negative repercussions in situations, where fund assets must be sold when there is insufficient demand or demand exists only at significantly lower prices.
- Operational risks: Erroneous processes, technical errors or catastrophes can lead to losses.
- Risks related to the application of financial techniques: The fund may use financial techniques, such as derivatives, in order to increase the earnings opportunities of the fund. These increased opportunities involve increased risks of losses.
